HONGKONG, MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1901. THE usefulness of public representatives on the Legislative Council can best be gauged by the interest they show in public affairs. We make this remark apropos the proposal to spend $9000 in building a Chinese school at Yaumati. At one time, had the Government offered a grant of $9000 to build a school for European children, the Kowloon residents would have undertaken the management for themselves; but the Government missed its opportunity, and whon they did make a French. 'The number of men engaged was similar monetary offer it was hampered by | 7000 infantry, with five batteries of artillery conditions with which the Kowloon residents felt they could not comply, while, in the meantime, the opinion had grown in strength in other parts of the Colony that the education of the children, whatever the parentage, was a Government duty, and that the whole system of educations in the Colony was in need of revision and amendment. While there were free schools for Chinese, while the Colony maintained an expensive staff to educate Chinese children

CIRCUMAMBULATING THE WORLD.

Arrival of the One-Armed Pedestrian. The s.s. Glenturret brought to Hongkong the other day George M. Schilling, who is achieving fante by walking round the world. Mr Schilling is an American citizen, and, as is generally the case in such exploits, has undertaken the tour as the result of a wager. In 1894, Mr Schilling first commenced his feats of long-distance walking, the hinterland, and the railway terminus at and soon attracted public attention. He cultivated powers of endurance which resulted, in 1897, in Steve Brodie, the famous bridge-jumper of New York, backing him to complete a circuit, of the world on foot in the space of four situation that was inevitable. But where years. A condition of the bet was is Russia to stop? With regard to the nathat Schilling would start without clothes or money, and, without begging, borrowing or spending, would complete the journey with $5,000 (gold). Schilling, who is possessed of great pluck and endurance, left New York on the 3rd of August, 1897, attired in a suit of newspapers, and absolutely cent-less, and with his dog 'King II' as his only companion. Of the night of the same day, he arrived at Yonkers, where he changed his paper suit for respectable garb obtained from a tailor for exhibiting himself in his shop window. He also attended an entertainment given in his honour. From this time Schilling has continued 'striding.' He crossed from the United States into Canada, and after travelling a thousand miles recrossed the border into Detroit on the 17th September, 1897. He passed through cities from Chicago to Topicka, and after great hardships and encountering blizzards and sandstorms he completed his journey across the American Continent in nine months and fourteen days. From Vancouver, he took ship to Australia, landing at Sydney. By the latter end of September last year he had visited all the principal towns in Australia. War having broken out in South Africa, the period allowed him to complete his tour was attended by six months and he stayed on in Australia. Ho left Freemantle on the 24th August last, sailing for Colombo, and after leaving Ceylon-reached Calcutta on the 28th September. He left Calcutta on his across India, arriving in Bombay on 9th October last. He had taken a month and eleven days to traverse a distance of 1404 miles, thus walking an average of 33 miles per diem, a good record for continuous The Committee of Ministers was different British men-of-war in the harbour walking in India. It was evident that until full security were given for the payment of indemnities, no troops would be withdrawn from the Province of Chihli. The Auglo German agreement did not refer to Manchuria. It was to the interest of all the Powers that the economical strength of China should remain undiminished. ### THE BOER 'REASON WHY?

The Daily Telegraph contains an account of a conversation with some Boer prisoners on their way to Coylon, which deserve special attention, as showing the real feel ing of the Boers. 'You will return,' said the writer in the Daily Telegraph 'to find it all peaceful, and will live happily ever after under the Union Jack. 'Never can we live under that flag, was the emphatic chorus of reply. You treat the blacks, who are savages and murderers, as equals. In the Colony you will allow them to walk on the sidewalks. One might even have to sit next a black woman in church!

When you got down to the rock-bed of the true and unsophisticated Boor's anti-British feeling it is always this. He wants, like the Southerner before the war, to be able to 'wallop his own nigger,' and the dread, and indeed the knowledge, that he will not be able to do this if the British win, make him ready bendure anything and risk everything. It is the thought of the nigger on the sidewalk that maddens him, not the destruction of the Republic, or the lowering of the Vierkleur,

Many humorous stories are told of the troubles of museum curators in bringing home their precious discoveries from foreign parts. When Mr Stanley Flower was in charge of the nuiseum at Cairo, he went forth one time in the direction of Omdurman, to obtain a specimen of a very rare breed of African turkey. #### KIAO-CHAU.

In an interesting letter to the Mala; Mail Mr Henry Huttenbach writes thus of his recent visit to Kiao-chau :-

Everywhere there are signs of rapid progress. Houses are in course of erection all over the place, and the Government is spending about 8,000,000 (?dollors) this year on harbour works alone. A big harbour is being made in Kiautschau bay, and when finished in three or four years will eclipse all other harbours in the Far East It will be about ten miles away from the

Hongkong Tides.

The Tide Table given below has been compiled by the Nautical Almanae Office in London from the result of the analysis of observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Tam Sha Tsui during the years 1887-8-9. The zero of the table is Low Water Ordinary Spring Tides, which has been found to be 2 feet below mean sea level. To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 5 ft. 7 in., and on the gauge at Lamont Dock, given in the table.

FRIEND TO FRIEND, TT is not so much what the newspapers say, as to what neighbour says to neighbour, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhuea Remedy into such general use. It is as natural for people to express their 4 gratitude ofter using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby he sick with cholera infantum or a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you

A special meeting of the Sanitary Board was held to day, for the purpose of considering the steps to be taken to meet the present epidomic of small-pox and prevent its spreading further. There were present Dr Bell, Dr Clark and Mesars W. Chatham, A.W. Brewin, Fung Wa Chun and Chan A Fook, and G.A. Woodcock (Seerctary). In the absence of the Hon R. D. Ornsby, President, and Hon, F. H. commencing the Attorney General (Mr W. Although it was a case with some suspicion Company are in hard training, attached to it, he did not think it would be right to take up the time of the Court, for two days perhaps, with it. Under the cir-cumstances, he did not think it his duty to file information, and he asked that the accused be discharged.

This was agreed to by his Lordship. THE BOWEN ROAD AFFAIR. Wong Ful and Li Hing were charged with robbery with violence. They denied the charge, and the following gentlemen were empanelled as a jury-Messrs A. P. Saniy, F. A. C. Hahn, F. A.

The Attorney General said the two pri soners were charged with robbery with violence upon the person of one Frank Esrom, a clerk in the employ of the Eastern Asiatic Trading Company, It seemed that, on the afternoon of Sunday, 3rd March, Mr Esrom was walking along Bowen Road When he got some distance along he notice ed that there were two men behind him, and when he got to that part of the Road looking down upon the cemetery, the men euddenly pounced upon him from behind.
They violently pushed him down on his face, and each time he tried to get up, they shoved him down again. One of the men struck him six times with his fist on the forehead, while the other man kicked him him and hurt his left knee. They then got him jambed into a side channel and took his watch and chain, valued about 870. One of the men then stood by while the other bolted with the watch and chain. Mr Esrom suffered a great deal, his knee was hurt, his nose bleeding and there were other bruises about him. Same time after, a number of Europeans and a blue-jacket from H.M.S. Terrible came along. The blue-jacket supported Mr Esrom to Wanchai Police Station, where a report was made to the police. The details of the arrest were then narrated, the Attorney General remarking that it was very creditable to the police that the men had been
